

SUMMER CAMP SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

About the Program

Congregation Beth Israel subsidizes the cost of approved Jewish summer camps, up to 50% per child, for children of members of the congregation. Families that receive summer camp scholarships are expected to participate in synagogue services and activities. The synagogue has set specific guidelines for participation in its programs to strengthen the mutual commitment between the congregation and its members.

Terms

1. Eligibility

Scholarships will be awarded to applicants who are active members of the congregation in good standing. Applicants must be current residents of Malden or immediate environs at the time of application.

2. Requirements

Before scholarship funds can be disbursed, recipients must provide a paid invoice or receipt from the summer camp.

3. Participation Guidelines

Recipients of scholarships are expected to make a good faith effort to attend the following services and activities: Shabbat morning services (every week), weekday services (Sunday through Friday - at least one morning and evening per week), Chanukah party, Purim Se'udah, Shabbatons (at least one per year), lectures and video presentations (at least two per year).

These guidelines exclude cases where attendance is prevented because of illness, severe weather or out-of-town travel.

Instructions

1. Please fill out a separate application for each child.

2. Submit your paid invoice or receipt from the summer camp to the office; via e-mail to director@bethisraelmalden.org or by postal mail to: Congregation Beth Israel Summer Camp Subsidies, 10 Dexter Street, Malden, MA, 02148. You will be reimbursed after the office receives your paid invoice or receipt.
